INTRODUCTION

The Bungard's of Butler, IN appear to have come from Salt Lick Township, Fayette County, PA around 1815 - 1822. Adam Bungard, a pioneer German settler, moved from Eastern PA/Western Maryland to Salt Lick Township (Bullskin prior to about 1788) sometime about the period of the American Revolution. He died in 1833 at the age of eighty-seven years. He reared sons named Adam, George, John, Christian, Daniel, Jacob, and Michael. He also had at least three daughters who married Jacob Miller, Samuel Berg and Samuel Hahn. Sons Christian and Jacob married daughters of Ludwig Miller. Son George was the supervisor of roads for Salt Lick in 1802. When son Jacob's mother-in-law, Mrs. Ludwig Miller, died at the age of eighty-six years she had one hundred and fifty grandchildren and two hundred great-grandchildren some of her children being parents to eighteen and twenty children.

A half day of research at the Courthouse in Uniontown, PA and at the Courthouse and at the Westmorland County Historical Society in Greensburg, PA did not establish the exact lineage of Adam Bungard, father of Jasper Newton, to the Bungards of PA but there are numerous reasons to suspect that this lineage does exist. Perhaps a visit to the National Archives in Washington, DC or a longer stay in PA will discover this link. Assistance from anyone to help locate the early records will be greatly appreciated.

ESTATE OF ADAM BUNGARD - Saltlick Township, Fayette Co., PA FAYETTE COUNTY

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of the County of Fayette, GREETING:

Whereas at an orphan's court held at Union Town in and for the County of Fayette on the first Monday of September A.D. 1840, before the Hon. N. Ewing, Esq., President, This associates Judges of the Same Court, DANIEL BUNGARD, one of the sons and heirs at Law of ADAM BUNGARD, late of said county, dec'd, presented his petition to the said court, noting that his father died intestate about the 5th day of October 1839 leaving a widow, Magdalena and ten children, viz: Adam, George, John, Christopher (), the petitioner, Jacob & Michael, daughters, Catharin intermarried with Jacob Miller, Susanna intermarried with Samuel Berg, Rachel unmarried. That the said intestate died seized in his demesne(?) as of fee of and in a certain messuage tract of land situate in Saltlick Township, containing 200 acres more or less, adjoining lands of Ludwick Miller, William Senett, Abm. Gallentine, Abm. Davis and others. And therefore praying the court to award an inquest to make partition or valuation of the premises according to law. We therefore command you that taking with you twelve free, honest and lawful men of your bailiwick, you go to and upon the premises aforesaid, and thereby their oath or solemn affirmation, that you make partition thereof to and among the widow and children of the said intestate in such manner and of such partition cannot be made without prejudice to and spoiling of the whole, but if such partition cannot be made thereof as aforesaid that then you value and appraise the same according to law. And further that you cause the said Inquest to inquire and ascertain whether the appertanances will conveniently accomodate more than one of the children of the said intestate, and if so, how many of the said children it will conveniently accomodate. That due notice of the time of making such partition or valuation be given to all the parties interested and that you make return of your proceedings herein to the next general orphan's court.

Witness the Hon. Nathaniel Ewing by President of our said court at Union Town the 20th day of January A.D. 1841.

Richard Beem, Pres.

Ja. A. Pier, Clerk.

(Note: the Name Christopher as one of the sons used in these records is incorrect and should have been Christian Bungard as proven by bastimal and census records of Fayette Co., PA)

FAYETTE COUNTY, SS:

Before me the Subscriber one of the Commonwealth's Justices of the Peace in and for said County, personally appeared DANIEL BUNGARD who after being duly affirmed according to law deposeth and saith that in the matter of the estate of ADAM BUNGARD, dec'd, an inquest having been held on this real estate of Decedent that this deponent verily believed that this valuation is two (sic) low and that undue influence was used--that the land is worth at least five Dollars per acre--that there is seventy acres cleared, a cabin house and a good log barn, also a good orchard on the premises.

Exception of DANIEL BUNGARD, one of the heirs of ADAM BUNGARD, dec'd. to the account of Adam Bungard and John Christner, Administors of the Estate of said decedant--

1. We except to the Credits, to Jacob, Rachel and Michael Bungard numbered in said account ten, Eleven and Twelve, as contrary to law, negligent and fraudulent on the part of the administrators. The facts are--to wit: At the sale of the personal property of the said decedent--the said Jacob, Rachel and Michael, made purchases for which they respectively gave their obligations to the administrators--After the notes become due the administrators commenced suits against the said Jacob, Rachel & Michael before Esqr. J. H. Miller, on the trial of the said Debts set up claims against the estate for services performed after they were of age, and during the life time of their father--on this claim, the said Jacob was allowed a credit of Seven Dollars sixty eight cts., and the said Michael Ninety Nine Dollars and two cts. Without having proven a contract between them and their father by which only they would be entitled. The said administrators as we think, did not ask or employ council, or use any industry to present the said credits on the trial before the Justices, witnesses being present for the purpose of disproving said claimed, without an examination being demanded on the part of the administrators. Thus suffering the interests of the Estate to go unrepresented--And the administrators we think having appealed from the decision thus obtained before Esqr. J. H. Miller.

2nd. We except to the Item of three Dollars in the Account No. 14 in which John Christner, one of the administrators has received a credit for three days coming to Union Town for council, No council appearing to have been employed to act on behalf of the adminstrators, in consequence of which, the estate had suffered a loss.

3rd. We except--to an item of Two Dollars in the Account No. 15, in which Adam Bungard, on the Adm. has rec'd a credit for coming to Union Town for councill--this exception is founded on the same reason as exception No. 2.

Bungard

Delphia Rocelia Robinett eldest daughter of Mr. And Mrs. J. S. Robinett was born near Edon, Williams Co., Ohio, October 22, 1888. She came with her parents to Butler, about seventeen years ago where she resided until called by the Master, January 17, 1912, aged 23 years, 2 months and 26 days.

She has always been a faithful attendant at the Christian Church and Sunday School and joined membership with this church in March 1907 under Rev. Chapman. She was a kind unassuming character and had many friends. For three years previous to her marriage she was a faithful employee of the Record Office.

On April 11, 1910 she was married to Oliver Bungard and they soon after established a little home of their own on Green Street where they lived happily until her ill health overtook her in September, and though she made a valiant struggle she rapidly lost hold of life. She was patient, hopeful sufferer, optimistic for recovery to the last. The greater part of the last three months of her life were spent under the parental roof where loving hands ministered to her every want. She was preceded to the Spirit World by an infant daughter who died in 1911.

She leaves to mourn their loss a husband, father, mother, sister and grandmother Robinett, besides a host of other relatives and friends.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Brandon of Edon, Ohio, assisted by Rev. Imhof, at the Christian Church Saturday at 1:30. Interment in Butler Cemetery.

There is no Death!

What seems so is transition.

This life of mortal breasts, is but a suburb of the life elysian

Whose portal we call death

In that great cloister's stillness and seclusion,

By guardian angels led, Safe from temptation,

safe from sin's pollution.

Card of thanks

We take this way to express our heartfelt thanks to our friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us with words and deeds of kindness in our sore bereavement the illness and death of our beloved wife and daughter, and also extend our thanks for the beautiful floral offerings

Dies of Heard Attack while Driving Car

Funeral services for Oliver N. Bungard, Sr., 72, who died suddenly Tuesday afternoon, will be held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Butler Church of Christ, with the pastor Jack Fawley, officiating. Burial will be made in the Butler Cemetery.

Mr. Bungard died at approximately 3:45 p.m. while at the steering wheel of his automobile. He had gone to the school and picked up his granddaughter and was enroute home on Eastern Ave. He apparently suffered a heart attack on Cherry street and stopped his car when he became ill. He died immediately.

The body was taken to the Johnson funeral home where friends may call from Thursday morning until Friday noon, when the body will be taken to the church.

Mr. Bungard was born in Defiance county, Ohio, July 2, 1886. He was married on June 28, 1918 to Effie Madge Hodge at Rochester, Ind. They had made their home in Butler since that time.

He was employed in the wood room at the Butler company for a number of years, as a sheet metal worker for the late Seth Aldrich, and on the Butler street department. He was retired from the Butler fire department several years ago after having served on the department for 26 years.

He was a member of the Church of Christ and the Odd Fellows lodge.

Surviving are the widow, Effie; for sons, Willis and Oliver W. Bungard of Butler; Lynn Bungard Elyria, Ohio and James Bungard, Oxnard, California; two daughters, Mrs. Laura Tompkins, Grass Lake, Michigan and Mrs. Bessie Spangler, Baltimore, Maryland; a brother, Samuel A. Bungard, Butte, Montana; a sister, Mrs. Roy Warner, Sparta Mich. And 16 grandchildren.

Effie M. Bungard

Wed. May 9, 1979 Butler Bulletin.

Effie M. Bungard, 87 died Thursday in the Arbor Manor Care Center, Spring Arbor, Michigan; where she had been a resident of Butler prior to that.

She was born February 27, 1892 to Platt and Laura (Baugh) Hodge. On June 27, 1913, she married Oliver Bungard who preceded her in death.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Laura Tompkins, Jackson Michigan; and Mrs. Bessie Spangler, Ellicott City, Maryland; three sons Samuel L., Ohio, Oliver W., Fort Wayne and James R., California; one sister, Nellie Henry, Winamac, Indiana; 27 grandchildren and 22 great grandchildren.

Services were Monday at the Johnson Funeral Home in Butler. Rev. David Beard of the Butler Church of Christ presided. She had been a member of that church. Burial was in the Butler Cemetery.

He is survived by father, mother, sister Laura, two brothers, Willis and Lynn, grandparents and many relatives. One little brother, Francis preceded him in death about one year ago.

Tender Shepherd Thou hast stilled
Now Thy little lamb's brief weeping,
Oh how peaceful pale and mild
In its narrow bed 'tis sleeping.
And no sigh of anguish sore,
Heaves that little bosom more.

Funeral services were held at the Christian Church Thursday at 2 o'clock, conducted by pastor, E. P. Couch.

ZUBER

Jennie Viola Zuber was born June 13, 1894, and died Jan. 21, 1909 age 14 years, 7 months and 8 days. She was the daughter of Daniel Zuber and Emma Zuber. The cause of her death was acute appendicitis.

She was taken ill on Sunday, Jan. 18, and grew rapidly Worse until 6 p.m. on Thursday evening when she quietly passed beyond to await the coming of those she loved. Loved by all who knew her, a model at home and abroad, we cannot fathom the Great Reaper's purpose in binding so fair a flower in his sheaves. The place left vacant can ne'er be filled. The parting comes in sorrow and anguish, but with out tear-dimmed eyes upon the goal, we must pass on toward the haven she has reached. From the sorrow over the dead we refuse to be divorced. Upon her clay we utter an unheard sign and shed an unavailing tear, the more bitter because they are unheard and unavailing; and, looking back over the past of our dead loved one, resolve henceforth to be more faithful in the discharge of our duties to the living. She leaves to mourn, a father, a mother, two sisters and one brother. A brother preceded her to the better land some years ago. A host of friends, won by her ever smiling face and gentle manner, will miss her. The funeral was conducted from the U. B. Church Sunday afternoon, Rev. D. F. Helms officiating, undertaker Miller in charge.

NOTE 1

THE MAYFLOWER CONNECTION

Edward Doty Ancestor of Sarah Doty Wife of John Hodge The Mayflower Passenger List

There were 102 passengers that embarked on the Mayflower, including three pregnant women. The Mayflower left Plymouth, England on 6 September 1620, and sighted land on 9 November 1620. Landfall was made on 11 November 1620.

While the Mayflower was at sea, Elizabeth Hopkins gave birth to the son they named Oceanus. Three days before land was sighted, a young boy named William Bitten died. While the Mayflower was in Provincetown Harbor and the Pilgrims were looking for a place to settle, Susanna White gave birth to a son who they named Peregrine (the name means "one who journeys to foreign lands"). The third pregnant woman, Mary Allerton, gave birth to a stillborn son on board the Mayflower, just as the first houses were being built at Plymouth.

The Pilgrims in the 1600s used the Julian Calendar. Ever since 1752, we (the American Colonies) have used the Gregorian Calendar. The reason we switched to the Gregorian calendar was because the Julian calendar slightly miscalculated the exact length of a year by eleven minutes and fourteen seconds. During the 1500s and 1600s, the calendar was off by ten days. Hence, when we look back in time with our Gregorian calendar, we find that the Pilgrim's calendar was ten days behind. So what was September 6 by the Pilgrim's calendar is September 16 by our calendar.

By 1752 the calendar had become 11 days off. So the British Parliament, to fix the problem, declared the adoption of the Gregorian calendar, and renamed September 3, 1752 to September 14, 1752 to fix the eleven-day disparity.

The Parliament also declared that New Years would fall on January 1, instead of March 25. This "New Years" discrepancy is the reason why some dates have been double-dated and look like March 5, 1621/2. This means it was 1621 to them because their New Years had not yet occurred, but it is 1622 to us because our New Years falls on January 1, not March 25.

This document has left the dates in the Julian calendar unless otherwise noted. To get the equivalent date for our modern Gregorian calendar, you need to add ten days.

What follows is a full and complete list of all Mayflower passengers.

Erronous Ancestry Information in the Mormon's I.G.I Files

The ancestry of Edward Doty is unknown. He came on the Mayflower as an apprentice ("servant") to Stephen Hopkins. The Mormon's I.G.I. says Edward Doty was born in Shropshire, England on 14 May 1598, but this record is complete fiction. [For more information on this hoax, see The American Genealogist 63:215].

Another entry, which is circulated widely on the internet and is also on the 1994 I.G.I. addendum is that he was baptized 14 May 1598 in St. Mary le Strand, Thurburton Hills, Suffolk, England, son of John. This is just a perversion of the fictional Shropshire origins, and this record is, again, completely mythical. To begin with, there is no such place as Thurburton Hills, Suffolk. Further, the parish of St. Mary le Strand is in London not Suffolk, and contains absolutely no baptismal entries for any Edward Doty's from 1595 to 1600.

There are no fewer than eight known genuine Edward Doty baptisms that occurred between 1585 and 1605, but none have been conclusively identified as the Edward Doty of the Mayflower.

The following summarizes the Morman's I.G.I records for Edward Doty's ancestry but keep in mind that this has been proven to be fiction.

Edward Doty's Descendants

1. Edward Doty between 1595 and 1602; died 23 August 1655, Plymouth Colony. He came to Plymouth Colony on the Mayflower in 1620.

Married Faith Clarke January 6, 1634/35 Plymouth Colony, USA Daughter of Thurston (Tristam) Clarke and Faith _____. Faith Clarke was born 1619 Ipswich, England; died Dec 1675. (Reference Doty-Doten Book by E.A. Doty)

Edward was an apprentice (servant) to Stephen Hopkins, and apprentices could not generally get married until their contract term was up. William Bradford, in his journal Of Plymouth Plantation, states in early 1651 "But Edward Doty by a second wife hath seven children, and both he and they are living." Doty's mysterious first marriage must have occurred in Plymouth sometime after he was released from his contract with Hopkins (which apparently occurred between 1623 and 1627). Nothing is known about his first marriage, and all his children were by his second marriage to Faith Clarke.

Extracted from: THE DOTY-DOTEN FAMILY by E. A. Doty

Governor William Bradford, the second Governor of the Plymouth Colony, who succeeded to that office upon the death of Governor Carver in 1621, was himself one of the most prominent emigrants by the Mayflower. His History of Plymouth Plantation, which was completed in 1650, really comprises a diary of his life there. In the appendix of that history he gives a list of the " Passengers of the Mayflower," as follows:

"The names of those which came over first in ye year 1620, and were by the blessing of God the first beginners and (in a sort) the foundation of all the Plantations and Colonies in New England: and their families."

Then follows the list, in which occurs the family of Stephen Hopkins, as follows:

"Mr. Steven Hopkins & Elizabeth, his wife, and 2 children caled Giles and Constanta, a daughter, both by a former wife; and 2 more by this wife, caled Damaris & Oceanus: the last borne at Sea: and 2 servants caled Edward Doty and Edward Litster." And then he continues (writing in 1650):

"And seeing it hath pleased him to give me to see thirty years compleated since these beginnings: and that the great works of his providence are to be observed, I have thought it not unworthy my paines to take a veiu of the decreasings & increasings of these persons, and such change as hath pased over them & theirs, in this thirty years. It may be of some use to such as come after: but however I shall reeste in my owne benefite. I will therefore take them in order as they lye."

And then follows, in the same order as in the original list, each family, with its changes, and next the family of Stephen Hopkins, this account:

"Edward Doty & Edward Litster, the servants of Mr. Hopkins. Litster, after he was at liberty went to Virginia & ther dyed. But Edward Doty by a second wife hath 7 children and both he and they are living."

The history of the Pilgrims, as stated by Governor Bradford in his history of Plymouth Plantation, shows that the Puritans from sundry towns and villages in Nottinghamshire. Lincolnshire, and some of Yorkshire, to escape inconveniences and persecutions, removed about 1608-9 to the Low Countries. There came also some from London and other parts. They settled first at Amsterdam, but in a year removed to Leyden, where they livd till 1620.

About the first of August of that year, after many delays, they sailed to Southampton, and on the 15th the Mayflower and Speedwell sailed from that port to the New World with 120 passengers, some of whom had hut just joined the company. Disasters to the Speedwell compelled a return.....

The story of this first winter of the settlers, strangers upon this most inhospitable coast, overcome by sickness and exposure, is pathetically told by Bradford. Within two or three months one-half of their company died, it being the depth ot winter and they wanting houses and other comforts. They were attacked by scurvy and other diseases, caused by their long voyage and poor condition, so that there died sometimes two or three in a day. In the time of their greatest distress there were but six or seven sound persons to wait upon the others and perform, the necessary duties for the sick. The seamen on the vessel fared almost as badly, so that the Mayflower was detained several months from returning. To add to their distress, the house which had been built as a general rendezvous and for the common use, and to which many of their goods had been removed, was accidentally burned on the 14th January, and increased their troubles.

Edward Dotey unquestionably bore his part in the sufferings of this trying season, but his young and rugged constitution carried him safely through, and the spring found him working with his master in the fields or upon the houses which it was found necessary to erect and which were at first used largely in common by the settlers. Tha first direct allusion to him that we tind in the records at this time is not a complimentary one. But it must be borne in mind that these, the records of the police court at the time exaggerate the importance of these peccadilloes of the young. It is under the date of 1621, June 18, that we find this item in "A. Chronological History of New England," by Thomas Prince, M. A., a journal carefully compiled from Bradford's History and the various records of towns and churches, and published about 1712.

"The second offence is the first duel fought in New England, upon a challenge of single combat with sword and dagger between Edward Doty and Edward Leister, servants of Mr. Hopkins, both being wounded, the one in the hand, the other in the thigh, they are adjudged by the whole company to have their head and feet tied together, and so to be for twenty-four hours, without meat or drink: which is begun to be inflicted, but within an hour, because of their great pains, at their own and their master's humble request, upon promise of better carriage, they are released by the Governor."

The second offence this is called. The first had been in March previous, when John Billington, "who came onboard at London," was charged with "contempt of the Captain's lawful command with opprobrious speeches." He was adjudged to much the same punishment, but "craving pardon & being firstoffence he is forgiven."

In these early days of the Colony these were unquestionably very grave offences against the peace and against the authority of the governor, and were properly met with severity of punishment, the more readily perhaps as the offenders were in humble position and among those who had joined the company at London and had thus from the first been viewed with suspicion by the pilgrims from Leyden.....

BIOGRAPHICAL SUMMARY of Edward Doty:

Edward Doty is recorded as a contentious man, often getting himself in trouble with the law. On 18 June 1621 he fought a duel with Edward Leister, which would become the Colony's first (and only) duel. Neither were seriously injured, and both were subsequently punished by having their heels tied to their neck. However, their punishment was cut short due to their apparent suffering.

Doty was in court on a number of occasions, mostly in civil disputes. On 2 January 1632/3, Edward Doty was sued by three different people: John Washburn, Joseph Rogers, and William Bennett. It all appears to have been a disagreement about a trade of some hogs; John Washburn's case was thrown out, Joseph Rogers was awarded four bushels of corn. In William Bennett's case, Edward Doty was found guilty of slander, and fined 50 shillings. Two years later, in March 1633/4, Edward Doty was fined 9 shillings and 11 pence for drawing blood in a fight with Josias Cooke. In January 1637/8, Doty was fined for assaulting George Clarke.

In 1639, Edward Doty posted "bail" for John Coombes, who was charged with giving out poisoned drinks. There were a number of other civil disputes and court matters that Edward Doty was involved with. And however disagreeable in personality, Edward Doty was mostly involved in simple civil disputes and was never in any serious official trouble.

It was at this time, it will be remembered, that Governor Bradford, in the Appendix to his history recounting the families of the original settlers, says that "Edward Doty by a second wife hath 7 children, and both he and they are living." From other sources we know that in 1652 he was one of the purchasers of Dartmouth, and that he made other purchases of land elsewhere.

His death occurred at Plymouth August 23, 1655. His will is dated three months earlier, and as it states him then then sick it is probable that this sickness continued altogether many months. His will, which is as follows, is signed by his mark, and the name receives new spelling from the scribe, "Dotton," this being only occasion where it is used.

"May the 29th 1655
